Weighed 140 Pounds, and Had to Split $3,800 Purse with South Brooklynite.

Although Joe Gans, the light-weight champion of the world, defeated Willie Fitzgerald, the South Brooklyn fighter, Fitzgerald, the South Brooklyn fighter, easily in San Francisco last Friday night, Fitzgerald received as much money as he did. A week before the fight Al Herford, figuring out that Gans could not get down to 135 pounds, suggested the fight be at catch-weights. Then George Weedon, manager for Fitzgerald, requested that the purse be split, and it was. Each fighter received $1,900. Gans weighed 140 pounds when he entered the ring, while Fitzgerald tipped the beam at 135 pounds. Al Herford won $3,900 in bets.

Walcott's Next Fight.

Walcott's Next Fight.

Joe Walcott, the welter-weight cham-pion, who recently defeated Billy Smith in three rounds, in Portland, Ore., will have another try at "Young Peter Jackson," the California welter-weight. They will meet in a twenty-round bout before the Pastime A. C. of Portiand, Ore., on June 18. Both have begun training for the fight. Jackson recently knocked out Tommy Reilly, the champion middle-weight of California, in two rounds.

Murphy Has Another Bout On.

Hughey Murphy, the east-side feather weight, who is matched to meet "Youns Corbett" in a six-round bout before the Tammany A. C. of Boston on June 26 has another battle on his hands. He habeen signed by Matchmaker Jerry Watson, of the same club, to meet Billy Maynard, the feather-weight fighter of this city, in a twelve-round bout or Thursday night.
